Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard

Ask anyone who knows—opening a new office or shop is not nearly as easy as you'd think. Countless delays, disappointments and anxieties go into those attractive new fronts you see up and down Campbell avenue. Like Alma Fanning's newly opened beauty studio—she and the decorator had trouble seeing eye to eye about the wall paper. Then the floor man couldn't get the covering she ordered. Plumbing and other fixtures arrived piece meal until she began to envision her customers standing up to have their shampoos. One of the shiny new driers arrived with a frayed cord that had to be replaced before she could use it.

You'd never guess it, now that all the irritating hurdles are over and the shop's a ship shape, going concern.

Just home from gallavanting off to Tennessee for his first visit in 54 years is John Strong of 80 N. First street.

He drove back with his granddaughter-and-son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoerler, to reunion with his sisters Mrs. Walter Lawson and Miss Cora Strong, who still live on the family farm near Cleveland, Tenn., which is not far from Chattanooga. Miss Cora was here for a stay in 1915, but he and Mrs. Lawson hadn't seen each other since 1894 and they all had plenty to talk about.

The four-week trip allowed for a stop-over in Salt Lake City with the Hoerler's daughter Julia Lee Kirton, plus sight-seeing at Hoover Dam, Carlsbad Caverns, Grand Canyon.

Mrs. E. L. Barton was telling about her trip earlier this summer to her home town, Fall River, Mass. Besides renewing acquaintance with her family and eastern friends, she toured the coast states there, through the beautiful mountains of the Carolinas, came home by way of Tennessee and route 66.

The international situation too keeps rearing its head, even in this peaceful valley. From Los Gatos' Russ Lambert, the Kiwanis club had a first hand account of how Australia is doing under a Russian-influenced government.

His report is the more interesting because our newspapers and radio have carried so little news about Australia of late—too much blood and thunder on the left of the world.

From over Europe way, Marion Peake writes her mother that folks in Belguim, Holland and England are tense with political anxiety. She found Hollanders the happiest, much better fed and more cheerful than the British and attributes it to the strict rationing in England, and faster recovery in continental countries where wartime controls have been dropped.

Shortly after the cornation of Julianna of the Netherlands, Marion had a close-up of the Queen when their cars passed each other

TWO SHIFTS—One class is ready to move in and occupy the desks and class room as another class moves out in this typical scene at Moorpark School of the Campbell Union Elementary School District.

Photo, taken Monday on opening day of the fall terms, shows how 28 different class groups are either starting for home or just beginning school at 12:30 noon each day.

Bonds for building funds to relieve this condition will be put before the voters of the district October 15.

High School Nears 1000 Enrollment For 1948-49 Term

With a full year of study, extra curricular activities and fun ahead of them, 889 pupils reported for classes Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Some 105 more students who are now employed in the fruit orchards and industry will return to school as soon as the harvest is finished.

Football takes the limelight among athletic events for the fall season. Buc's fans look forward to the opening game at 8 p.m. Oct. 1 with Lincoln High School and to the first home-game of the year at Campbell field at 3 p.m. Oct. 8 when the local varsity meets San Jose High. Four home games are listed for the season.

More than two dozen players are vieing for places on the varsity squad and the 130 team attracted more than 50 boys for its initial practice.

High school athletes compete, too, in track, basketball, wrestling,

Trustee Points Out Plight of Grammar Schools As Enrollment Continues to Outstrip Building

Stressing the "dire necessity" for buildings for the Union Elementary school district, Ross C. Trowbridge, trustee, released a statement Wednesday dramatically calling attention to the growth of the grade school population.

High local birth rate during the war years, plus the influx of thousands of families from the East into Santa Clara Valley, have doubled and trebled the number of small fry who look to the unified school district for their readin', writin' and 'rithmetic.

Last year, the local grammar school felt the first full impact of the increase—and two new buildings were constructed during the school term to relieve pressure on the original Campbell grammar school.

Before they could be occupied, Moorpark and San Tomas schools were already serving more pupils than architects plans called for—and the grade school population is still on the upgrade.

Mr. Trowbridge issued the following statement regarding the bond issue to be voted upon in a special election Oct. 15:

September 21, 1948

Due to the crowded conditions in the three schools, the School Board has decided to present the problem to the voters of the District. One of the dire necessities of the passage of the school bonds may be illustrated in a few facts. Last year, there were six second grades; this year there were eight; and next year, in all probability, there will be 10. In the first grade

Cancer Education Discussed for BPW By Dr. J. F. Snyder

Publicity given to anti-cancer education has helped reduce fatalities from this disease, Dr. J. Frederic Snyder told Campbell Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday evening.

This same publicity has resulted in needless worry on the part of many people, he said, reminding his listeners that early observation and treatment have established a high percentage of control over cancer. "Cancer is not on the increase," he said, "but more cases are being discovered and treated than ever before, because of public information and improved diagnosis."

Dr. Snyder's talk was one of a series on public health and welfare, theme of September meetings of the club.

Mrs. W. H. Goodell presided at

Dutch, who maintains a keen interest in the athletic department at Santa Clara, spoke on football. His talk was sparked by intimate references to the present team, and the game a week ago Saturday at California. He told how Santa Clara scouts had figured out individual peculiarities of certain key California players. As a result of the

SIERRA SAFARI

OR THE GREAT DEER HUNT

(Being an account of the expedition into the wilds of the Sierra by Jim Brand, Sam Robinson and Harry Blanchard.)

There are some nimrods who simply oil the gun, pocket the shells, stow the duffle and unostentatiously depart in the cold gray light of dawn. They head for their own secret spot of deer hunting. They've been practically supercilious for days before, giving out with sly smirks and cutely raised eye-brows over their destination and their probable chances of bringing home the venison.

These boys know all the answers. They've been there before. They've scouted the country. They have an intimate friendship with old Manuel. Manuel, it seems, lives in the high, deep, hunting country. He's lived there for 40 years. He can stand on a bluff, dilate his nostrils and point out the exact spot where 17 of the largest bucks in the land are patiently waiting their destiny. So, off they go these lucky hunters who are in the know. They'll be on their way home by 8 a.m. on their first day out. They're a cinch. Manuel has been there 40 years, hasn't he?

x x x

But here's the way it works out for the just average hunter. The rank amateur. The guy who needs a few days vacation, and might just as well combine it with a real old-fashioned deer hunt. Of course there has to be a build-up so he paves the way something like this: (casual conversation with the "little woman") "You know, dear, this meat situation is something terrific." "I was talking to Joe down at the market today and he says it's getting worse every day." "Prices going higher and higher every time he buys more meat from the packer." "Wonder where it's all gonna end?" "Yes sir, it's simply outrageous." (No response from the L.W.) "Gee, I sure had a tough day today. The old man insisted on getting out all those month-end reports." "Said he hadda have 'em no matter how late we worked." "Also said I'd better take my vacation pretty quick. He's figuring on going away for a month." (Still a one-sided conversation) "By the way dear, do you know where those heavy wool sox of mine are? And that red wool shirt?" "What's the matter dear, don't you feel well?" and then it came!

"Look here, John Henry, you cut out all this bush-beating." "I've had your old Levis out of moth-balls, your shirt cleaned, your sox mended and four blankets rolled up for a week now. All your gear is stowed in that old duffle bag. I refuse to touch that old cannon you fondle so tenderly once a year, but it's right behind the closet door where you put it 365 days ago. And I hear shells are hard to get, and what county are you going to this time?" At this point the grizzled, hard-bitten vet-

Campbell Legion on Record in Opposing Un-American Activities in Politics

In a letter sent to both the Senate and House committees investigating Un-American activities Campbell Post number 596 of the American Legion urged that the work of stamping out all subversive activities be continued. The letter, addressed to Senator Knowland and Congressman Jack Anderson, commended the committees for their past work.

After a discussion of the subject by members, the Commander, Guy Smith, directed Forrest Reese, Americanism chairman to prepare the letter, which follows:

September 22, 1948

To: House Committee, Investigating Un-American Activities.
Senate Committee, Investivating Un-American Activities.
From: Campbell Post 596, American Legion, Department of California, Campbell, California.

Honorable Gentlemen:

At a regular meeting of Campbell Post 596, American Legion, it was unanimously adopted that the Americanism Chairman write a letter of commendation to both the House and Senate Committee's Investigating Un-American activities and congratulate them on the success that they have had, urging them to carry on.

May we respectfully, but urgently request that your committees continue with your investigation, until you have brought to the surface all who participated in the communist movement, regardless of who it may be, whether it

Local Airport Request Withdrawn

Temporary solution, at least, was offered to the Quito Road airport controversy this week when Howard Duncan, Los Gatos pilot, withdrew his application for a permit for a Class Two airport on Quito road at McCoy avenue. The County Board of Supervisors, instead of giving their decision Monday as scheduled, on whether or not the permit would be granted, announced that Duncan had withdrawn his application.

Originally, the County Planning Commission had voted at its meeting August 18 to issue a permit to Duncan for the airport; however, many residents of the area raised objections and claimed they were not given sufficient opportunity to express their objections, and demanded a rehearing of the application before the County Board of Supervisors.

The request was granted, and the hearing was held Monday, September 13. Representatives of both pro and con factions were heard during the lengthy session, following which the supervisors announced they would give their decision Monday of this week.

Meanwhile, Richard Olson, clerk of the board, received a letter from Duncan requesting that this application be withdrawn. In order to place this written request on record, it was necessary to bring the matter up before the board at its meeting on Monday, and for the supervisors to vote their approval.

Letter of Protest Elicits Support For Community Chest Campaign

Heartened by replies to a letter made public last week protesting lack of interest in Community Chest activities, Ray Fish, Community Council president, is preparing to go ahead with plans for the annual campaign October 15.

A campaign chairman, to be appointed this week, will find the staff of volunteer solicitors for the drive increased this year by offers of assistance that followed Mr. Fish's letter.

Sept. 14 he wrote council members to say that he was unable to continue as president unless more support was given to his administration. He referred especially to a meeting at which only two members were present.

Money contributed to the Community Chest is allocated in Campbell to the following causes:

Five hundred dollars for Campbell public library.

Milk supplied to underpriveleged children in five schools of the district.

Boy and Girl Scout troops.

Hi-Y groups.

Campfire Girls.

Summer playground program.

"Every dollar of Community Chest money is used in our own district," Mr. Fish pointed out. "Thanks to the response to my letter last week, we have three new private volunteers to aid the Chest campaign and the support of two new groups.

"This is for our own community. Let's not fail our children."

On Monday, September 27, the Country Women's Club of Campbell will hold the opening meeting of the club year in the club rooms of the Library Building. It will be a luncheon presided over by President Mrs. F. A. Jacobson.

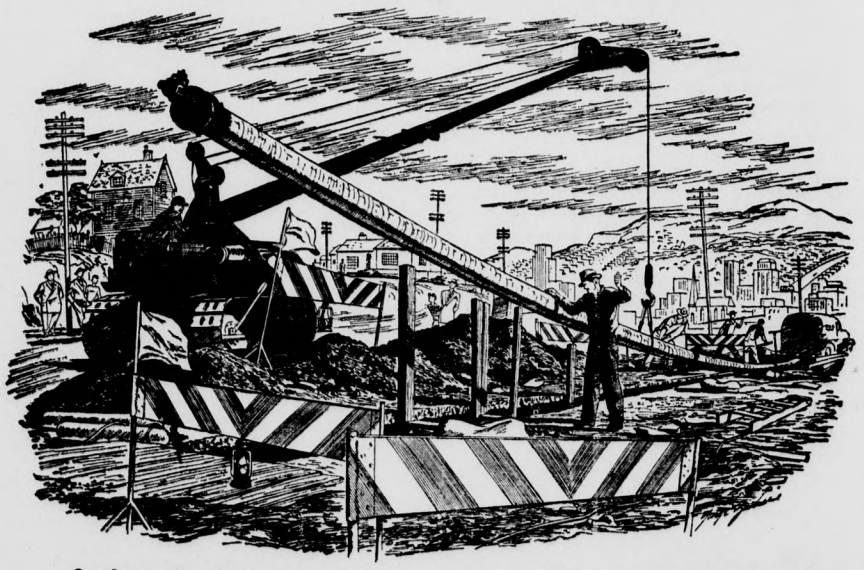
New gas-packed pipe carries huge voltages under city streets



On busy San Francisco streets motorists soon will be driving over 110,000 volts. They won't know it, of course. For the tremendous voltage will be safely transmitted in a new underground power-carrying cable, with a new insulating feature ...nitrogen gas held at 200 pounds pressure within a heavy steel pipe jacket. Pacific Gas and Electric Company crews are rushing construction of the first eighteen miles of this new underground cable in San Francisco. It is just part of our program to bring you an ever-improving electrical service.

More power than ever before can be carried underground in this cable. An outer coating of a mineral compound protects the pipe against moisture. The actual insulating job is done by oil-filled paper cable wrappings reinforced by the nitrogen gas under pressure.

"Filling stations" load the nitrogen in the protective pipe . . . and the cable is ready to transmit electricity underground safely. It's another example of how P. G. and E. uses the most modern means to deliver more power to the homes, farms and factories of California.

FOR THE RECORD

If damaged, the cable loses gas pressure to send its own SOS...

P. G. and E. is adding almost two million new horsepower of electric capacity...

It's the nation's greatest power construction program.

Work never stops on our power-building program

Lady Golden Glow Cake

Here's a marble cake that has the pleasant contrast of a tart orange marmalade filling and a smooth seven-minute icing.

"Golden Glow" is an odd name for a chocolate and white cake. It's so called because its layers are separated by a filling of orange marmalade. Your taste will tell you that the glowing filling is a good flavor foil for the cake and its smooth frosting.

There's no trick to obtaining the marbled effect of the cake. The smooth batter is divided in half just before baking, with melted chocolate folded into one half. Fill the layer cake pans by dropping in alternate spoonfuls of light and dark batter.

A cake like this is an instant success, especially when the pieces are generously cut and seconds are available.

LADY GOLDEN GLOW CAKE

¼ cup butter or margarine
2 cups sugar
4 eggs, separated
Grated rind of one orange
3 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk
2 squares chocolate

Cream butter or margarine with sugar until light. Add well beaten egg yolks and the orange rind. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add with milk alternately to creamed mixture. Fold in beaten whites. Mix into smooth batter. Divide the batter equally. To one half, add the melted chocolate and mix well. Drop light and dark batters alternately from spoons into greased layer cake pans. Bake 40 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Put layers together with orange marmalade and frost with seven minute icing.
Yield: Two nine-inch layers.

GET PREPARED FOR CRANBERRY WEEK

National Cranberry Week gets under way October 18. That's a cue for a Cranberry Ring made with a quick coffee cake batter. Spread the cranberry topping in the bottom of a well-greased nine-inch ring mold. For the topping, mix three-fourths cup of raw cranberries, one-half cup of sugar, and three tablespoons of melted butter or margarine. Pour batter over cranberry topping and bake in a moderately hot oven, 400 degrees F., for 25 minutes.

GET READY FOR "TRICKS OR TREATS"

When the youngsters come calling for "tricks or treats" this Hallowe'en, pass a tray of gingerbread men decorated with orange-tinted frosting. Gingerbread goodies boast a rich molasses flavor which make them popular teatime snacks.

Cub Leaders Will Study Pre-Scouting Program at All-Day Meet in November

The annual Cub Leaders Pow Wow for the adult volunteer leaders of Cubbing throughout the Santa Clara Boy Scout Council will be under the general chairmanship of Cubmaster Ronald Hunter, according to a recent announcement from Scout Executive C. D. Bartlett. The event is to be held Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 6, at the Jefferson Union School.

A recent meeting of the Pow Wow Committee, presided over by Chairman Hunter, completed the preliminary plans for the affair. The Pow Wow program developed by the National Cubbing Service will be followed this year and will offer Cub Leaders valuable helps to carry on their activities. There will be four sections to the Pow Wow with leaders enrolled to attend a given section during the entire session. Each Pack will be urged to have representatives present to attend the Pack Administration, games, ceremonies and craft sections. By doing this each Pack will have leaders trained to promote these activities within their own unit.

The following men have been appointed by Chairman Hunter to serve as the Pow Wow general committee:

George Larson, games section; Ralph Prickett, handicraft; W. J. Nicholson, ceremonies and entertainment; Charles Mitchell, Pack administration; John S. Sturgess, exhibits; C. C. Jern, midway; Lawrence Curtis, physical arrangements; Milt Ryder and the Commissioner's Staff, promotion and attendance.

Cub Leaders are urged to reserve Nov. 6 now in order to attend this annual Cubbing event.

Poor Hand Writing Costs Veterans Delay on Checks

The subsistence checks of many veterans enrolling in Northern California schools this month under the GI Bill will be delayed because they are not submitting complete information on their enrollment papers, or the information is so poorly written that it cannot be read, Veterans Administration reported today.

"VA is receiving hundreds of enrollment papers on which veterans fail to give their full name, complete address or claim number," according to Robert P. Shields, San Francisco regional VA manager.

On many enrollment papers the handwriting is so poor that it cannot be read. Shields urged veterans to print the information.

A number of students list a street address but fail to include the city. Others give the city but not the street address. Hhese cases require special research by the VA employes.

"If the San Francisco office continues to receive incomplete and illegible enrollment papers at the rate which we have been getting them, it will mean a loss of thousands of man-hours trying to straighten them out. The San Francisco office will have to process approximately 48,000 enrollment papers in the next few weeks. The veteran who fails to submit complete or legibly written information threatens to delay not only his own check, but those of all other veterans entering school," Shields said.

Campbell District Boy Scout Activities

The first meeting of the 1948-49 season of the Campbell District Committee of the Boy Scouts of America was held September 23 at the home of Laurance Hill, Committee Chairman.

Reports of summer Scouting and Cubbing activities were made by John Duncan, G. H. Larson, George Stubbe, M. L. Farnham, and Ed Dalzell representing the various sponsoring institutions. These reports showed that in the Campbell district there are over 150 active scouts forming seven Scout Troops, and more than 170 Cub Scouts in five Cub Packs, with numerous applications to join the movement when additional Scout Troops and Cub Packs can be formed.

Most of the officers of the past season agreed to continue to donate their services for the 1948-49 season. Present officers are: District chairman, Laurance Hill; district commissioner, George Jeffers; admancement chairman, Homer Hyde; camping and activities chairman, Albert Smith; organization and extension chairman, Joseph Gomes.Offices which have not yet been filled are: Finance chairman, health and safety chairman, leadership training chairman.

Newcomers into the district are invited to enjoy association with the Scouting movement, and help with the program by accepting one of the vacant chairmanships. George Jeffers, Campbell 2616, will be pleased to give information regarding requirements and duties, and talk with anyone interested. Men having former Scout experience are especially valuable on the Committee.

As the Boy Scouts of America is a Red Feather organization of your Community Chest, all Scouters are urged to attend the next meeting of the local Community Chest Council in order that the Boy Scouts may receive full recognition of their budget requirements as submitted at the last Council meeting.

Boy Scouts Plan Rummage Sale

Boys of Scout Troop 31 of Campbell are gathering articles for a rummage sale they plan for the near future. Anyone who has clothing or furniture to contribute is asked to phone Harry Smith at 2406. The boys will arrange to collect donations before the sale, and place the date of which will be announced soon.

French Toast Sandwiches Are Tasty Treat

Is French toast a favorite of yours? Then you'll like these French Toasted sandwiches. First make sandwiches of enriched white bread. Fillings of peanut butter, cheese, peanut butter mixed with honey, and prepared sandwich spreads are especially good. Dip each sandwich into a milk and egg mixture made by combining one and one-half cups milk, one well beaten egg, and one-eighth teaspoon of salt. Fry the sandwiches in butter or margarine, letting them brown evenly at a moderate temperature. Serve hot. A garnish of broiled peach or apricot halves is tasty and attractive.

GIRL SCOUT

GIRL SCOUTS BEGIN FALL MEETS

Members of Girl Scout Troop 22 attended a "Back-Yard Get-Together" at the home of Jacqueline Jansen on W. Campbell avenue last Thursday, Sept. 16.

Present for the enjoyable wiener roast which preceeded the Badge Discussion meeting, were Scouts Veda Thompson, Frances Evans, Leseth Hinz, Audrey Arnold, Marian Gould, Jacqueline Jansen, Barbara Wadsworth, Alice Lassen and Mary Ann Parysek.

Welcomed into the group was Mrs. Olive Parysek as a co-leader, and daughter, Mary Ann, a new member. Mrs. Parysek, a former nurse, was the popular Den Mother for the Boy Scouts of Campbell during the past several years. Her future assistance to the Girl Scouts will be gratefully appreciated by all.

The first meeting of Fall will be held this Friday, Sept. 24, and regularly thereafter every Friday after school hours at the hall near the Campbell Grammar School.

PROTEST DAYLIGHT TIME

California farmers want daylight saving repealed, and they have so advised Governor Warren.

President Ray B. Wiser of the California Farm Bureau Federation, said today he submitted to the Governor the recommendation adopted by the Federation's board of directors, urging the end of daylight saving on September 25.

Gasoline Use in July Second High on Record

July taxable distributions of gasoline, exceeded only once in the history of the motor vehicle fuel tax, amounted to 282,826,626 gallons and produced revenues of $11,345,202 after July refunds for non-highway use, according to George R. Reilly, First District Member of the State Board of Equalization.

Gallonage of gasoline which was subject to tax rose 17.6 percent over the total for July 1947. Not revenues were only 12.7 percent higher, however, because of a large increase in refunds for non-highway use. Reilly explained that refunds lag several months behind the assessments of the tax, and that those made in July, 1947, were based on the 3-cent levy while most refunds made in July, 1948, were at the rate of 4½ cents per gallon.

July distributions of gasoline exceeded those of June by nearly 3½ million gallons, reflecting increased tourist demands which customarily occur during this month. The total was also greater than that of June, 1947, when heavy purchases were made in an apparent effort to escape the increase in the rate of tax which became effective July 1, 1947.

During restoration of Sutter's Fort, workmen panned dirt near the east gate, recovering a quantity of gold dust.

Chicken-Killing Dogs on Sheriff's "Wanted" List

Sheriff's officers are looking for two canine chicken thieves.

The four-legged bandits broke into the H. A. Olsons' chicken house on their property on N. Winchester road before dawn Monday morning and destroyed 32 hens and pullets.

They escaped when the family, alarmed by the scuffle, ran out and scared them off. Description of the two dogs was phoned to the Sheriff's office and other chicken-owners along the block have been warned to watch out for them.

At the Olsons', they managed to tunnel under a fence—exiting by the same means later—and pushed open the chicken house door, surprising the hens on their roosts.

Shubridges Move To Ranch Home

Just moving into their ranch home on Virginia avenue are Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Shubridge of San Francisco. Mr. Shubridge recently retired from the San Francisco Police Department, where he was in charge of the finger-printing department of the detective bureau.

He formerly worked with the Cook County detective bureau at Chicago, Ill. Among the big cases solved this year through his department was that of a safe-cracking gang who robbed a large San Francisco department store.

Here's an easy way to make pizza pies for that foreign flavor in the supper menu. Use a roll mix to make the dough. Pat the dough into a skillet, top with slices of cheese and sliced meat, adding a generous dash of colorful chili sauce. Then bake the pizza at 300 degrees F. about 20 minutes.

The Republican Presidential campaign meshes into high gear this week as Governor Thomas E. Dewey hits the transcontinental road to California, and Governor Earl Warren carries his forceful campaign into Oklahoma, Missouri, Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan.

National interest will be centered on Dewey's visit to California, because he is scheduled to make two of the most important speeches of his campaign in this state.

His first California address will be in Los Angeles on Friday, Sept. 24. It will be broadcast at 8:30 p.m. over NBC.

Following his Southern California appearance, Dewey now is scheduled to leave on his private train Saturday morning and arrive in San Francisco late that afternoon. Although all plans still are tentative, the Presidential candidate's train is expected to travel the valley route to the Bay Area. A 30-minute stop is slated at Fresno.

Dewey will speak Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco. Because of the anticipated large turnout, the doors will open at 7:00 p.m. The program is scheduled to start at 8:30 p.m. Dewey's speech will be broadcast over ABC.

Admission to the Dewey rally will be by ticket only. Tickets may be obtained at Dewey-Warren Headquarters, 580 Market street, San Francisco.

Dewey moves into Oregon and Washington following his San Francisco address.

While Dewey is covering the Western states, the Vice-Presidential candidate, Governor Warren, will be carrying the GOP message to five states. Warren, working his way East, is scheduled for major addresses in Tulsa, Okla., St. Louis, Mo.; Louisville, Ky.; Columbus, Ohio and Detroit, Mich.

SAILING MAN INVENTED AMERICA'S "SINKER"

October is donuts - and - cider time. The man who is credited with originating the hole in the donut is Sea Captain Hanson Gregory of Pre-Civil War days. The story goes that his mother's fried-cakes failed to cook in the middle and he thrust a kitchen fork through the center. Thus the "sinker" was created.

For every dollar for parks California spends, another dollar has been an outright gift from public spirited individuals and groups.

Executive Department
State of California

Proclamation

During the period of October 1st to 8th, inclusive, the editors and publishers of America will sponsor the observance of ninth annual National Newspaper Week.

Their slogan will be: "Your right to know is the key to all your liberties." This precious "right to know" has been cherished by many generations of Americans. It was handed down to us by our founding fathers who wrote a guarantee of freedom of the press into the Constitution of the United States.

Public confidence in an unrestricted press has been justified by the leadership which American editors have given to many great movements contributing to this nation's progress. While in other parts of the world the curtailment of editorial freedom has foreshadowed the destruction of many of the institutions of Democracy, the free press of America has helped to keep our nation strong and to preserve its liberties.

So that our people may become more fully cognizant of the importance of preserving their vital "right to know," I, Earl Warren, Governor of California, join in calling attention to the many public services rendered by the newspapers of America and do hereby proclaim the period of October 1st to 8th, inclusive, 1948, as NEWSPAPER WEEK in California.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 15th day of September, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-Eight.

Campbell Firm Files Corporation Papers

Articles of incorporation were this week filed with the Secretary of State by the Campbell firm of Accardi's Home Appliances. The authorized outstanding stock has a par value of $100,000. Directors named were: Frank Accardi, president; Orrin Accardi, vice president; Mitchell Pusateri, secretary-treasurer.

The local firm is authorized representative and dealers for many of the nationally advertised appliance manufacturing firms. In an expansion program started some six months ago, the company, now to be known simply as Accardi's, went into the commercial field. They installed restaurant and club equipment as well as handling a complete domestic line of appliances. Frank Accardi was for many years head of the sales department at Nathan Dohrman in San Jose.

Expansion plans of the local firm are to further increase the size of their store on Campbell avenue. Frontage now takes up the space of two ordinary stores, but additional depth is planned for show rooms. The company employs eight people, including a service and installation department. The Nelson brothers, Clarence, Milt and Lloyd, well known to Campbell people have organized the installation department and that end of the business has been placed in their capable hands.

Enlist in Navy

George Gleed and Richard Villafuerte have enlisted in the U. S. Navy and are to leave for boot camp within a few days.

George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gleed, 250 N. Harrison avenue. He was graduated by Campbell Union High School in June, 1947, and has attended San Jose State College.

Richard, a classmate of George's, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ricardo Villafuerte, San Jose-Los Gatos road.

Two more young men from Campbell area have recently enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the Navy Recruiting Station in San Jose for a term of three years.

William F. English, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. English of 800 Lovell St., Campbell, enlisted as Seaman Recruit.

His buddy, Harold R. Chivers, son of Mr. H. R. Chivers of P. O. Box 211, Cupertino, also enlisted as Seaman Recruit.

Prior to their enlistments, both men attended and graduated from Campbell Union High School.

They have selected the Navy as their branch of service because, while learning a trade, they will also be seeing many foreign countries and places they have only read about up to now.

J. "C" Kuykendall, son of Rollie King Kuykendall of 93 Harrison avenue, Campbell, enlisted in the U. S. Navy for 3 years, Sept. 15 and is now at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, where he is going through "Boot" training.

J. C. attended Campbell Union High School.

What's in a nickel's worth of bread? Mrs. Clara Gebhard Snyder, director of the Wheat Flour Institute, points out that six slices of bread a day provide 30 percent of the protein recommended as a daily intake, 35 percent of the thiamine, 31 percent of the niacin, 17 percent of the riboflavin, and 25 percent of the iron. If the bread is made with three percent milk solids, this amount even provides 5.8 percent of the calcium.

More and more of the nation's finest young men are deciding that to go Navy is the way to make a career for themselves.

The Washington Monument cost a total of $1,500,000.

WHITE GOLD FOR SOUTHERN QUEEN

Pretty Pam Camp, Miss Arkansas of 1947, relaxes on a cushion of Dixieland's "white gold"—cotton, that is! The lovely Southern belle is looking forward to an exciting day October 1 at Blytheville, Ark., when the country's top cotton pickers will compete in the ninth annual National Cotton Picking Contest. King Cotton's fastest picker will win the title, "World Champion Cotton Picker," plus a $1,000 prize!

Coaches Tell of Football Prospects At Kiwanis Lunch

Football prospects for Campbell Union High School this fall were outlined Tuesday for Campbell Kiwanis Club.

Coach Art Swenson and his assistants Bill Perry and Steve Corsiglio agreed that the Bucs have a good chance to have a winning team through the season.

With 12 lettermen back for 1948 Swenson looks for a successful season. Santa Clara and Washington high schools appear to offer the stiffest competition as the season begins, he said.

Perry praised the enthusiasm of the team and described the T-formation used in backfield play. Corsiglio, coach for the 130 team discussed the increased interest in the light-weight squad, for which some 50 boys turned out Monday.

L. J. Hill was chairman Tuesday and Everett Nelson was presented with an award for four years perfect attendance.

Alpine County, with a population of 330, has no doctors.

Time for A Showdown

Acting Governor Goodwin J. Knight has called for a showdown on charges of the State Crime Commission that the office of Attorney General Frederick Howser is implicated in a "statewide crime network" which seeks to break down law enforcement.

The indictment of a former lieutenant of the attorney general by the Mendocino County Grand Jury tends to support this charge, although Admiral William H. Standley, head of the commission, does not accuse Howser of being personally involved in the alleged "crime network."

Rumors and charges against the Howser office, however, have been flying thick and fast for the past year. The attorney general has repeatedly denied irregularities and has made the countercharge that an attempt it being made to discredit his department.

The situation has become intolerable. There must be a showdown without delay. For the highest law enforcement office in the state to be under suspicion of being involved with criminal elements is destructive to public confidence in law enforcement.

If necessary, Governor Warren should require the Crime Commission to present evidence to substantiate its charges and the attorney general should then be required to answer—with facts, not mere verbal denials.

The people of California have a right to know what goes on.

"Bad public officials are elected by good citizens who fail to vote." (from "The Man in the Street" by Thomas Bailey).

Forest Fires

Each year forest fires in California leave a black mark on California hills and valleys and a blacker mark on the record of fire prevention. This year is no exception. Thousands of acres have already felt the searing flame, and thousands of fire fighters have struggled valiantly to halt the destruction caused by a single carelessly tossed match or lighted cigarette. Some people never learn the necessity for caution in wooded areas. Unfortunately, those responsible for the blazes are rarely apprehended. In most instances they are unaware of their guilt. he imposition of stiff sentences, however, on those found to be extremely careless or deliberately negligent with fire might help to cut down the annual holocaust. More must be done to prevent the ravaging of our fields and timberlands.

Miss America

Now that Miss America has been chosen, the country can relax for another year and Atlantic City can start its annual hibernation. Probably the most notable thing about the 1948 edition of Miss America, aside from her collection of curves, dimples, poise and talent, is her height. The young lady, as you no doubt have heard, is 5 feet 9 inches tall in her stocking feet—when she wears stockings. By the time she gets into high-heeled shoes she stands close to 6 feet, and it takes a pretty good man to match that. Anyway, we appear to be definitely in an era in which the tall woman is tops—in more ways than one.

We Like It That Way

Some time early in October—the dates aren't fixed yet—there'll be a week when Mr. Truman and Mr. Dewey might just as well save their campaigning breath. And if the Russians are really serious about seizing Berlin — without arousing too many Americans—their golden opportunity will come during this same October week.

For it's in October that the "piece de resistance" in baseball—the World Series—takes place. For a week, almost all America will be content to forget international incidents and domestic issues to follow the battle of the American and National League pennant holders for the World Championship.

That's the kind of people we are. Baseball is our national pastime, and we're glad of it. The Russians might not understand, but we think we're better off for it, too!

The California State Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the annual convention of the Italian Catholic Federation of California have gone on record in opposition to Propositions 6 and 15, the anti-commercial fishing measures on the November ballot, according to communications received by the Save Our Fisheries Committee.

W. E. Stewart, Director of the State Chamber's Natural Resources Department, reported that the vote of the Chamber's Board of Directors followed presentation of a report by Robert Gordon Sproul, chairman of the Chamber's Natural Resources Committee.

John J. Savant, General Secretary of the Italian Catholic Federation, reported that the annual convention of that body decided that these propositions "would cause ruin to many hard working people without helping sportsmen."

An umpire has his ups and downs, as shown in this novel Speed Graphic shot made at Briggs Stadium, Detroit. The runner was safe but the first baseman, in covering the bag, accidentally knocked over the umpire. Junior May Still Rate as Income Tax Exemption

The Revenue Act of 1948 effects many changes in income tax—the most amazing of which is a peculiar quirk in the law making a certain type of young wage earner "neither dependent nor taxpayer."

Calling attention to the discrepancy, Miss Augusta Rosenberg, lecturer in income taxation for University Extension, University of California, declared, "When Congress passed the Act, it ruled that no one earning less than $600 a year, having no other income, need pay a tax. But Congress failed to change the definition of a dependent, so that the old definition stands: A dependent must earn less than $500 a year and receive more than half his support from the person claiming the exemption.

"Consequently, junior will still have to keep his earnings under $500 this year to qualify as an income tax exemption for father. On the other hand, junior won't have to pay any tax himself unless he earns more than $600. Result: if a youngster earns something between the two figures—$525, for instance—he falls into an unclassified vacuum so far as the Bureau of Internal Revenue is concerned. He is neither dependent nor taxpayer."

FOR FLAKY CRUST

What would autumn be without the favorite two-crust apple pie, with the flaky top crust putting a lid on the juicy goodness inside? The final test of a good pie is the crust. When making it, add water sparingly, sprinkling it lightly over the flour-shortening mixture. Enough water has been added if the ingredients just hold together when pressed with the fingers. Toss dough on a lightly floured board or pastry cloth and roll lightly from center. Lift dough a few times while rolling; this helps to prevent sticking.

Sierra Safari

eran of the swivel chair heaved a mighty sigh of relief. "Then you think it will be alright for me to go for a few days with Sam and Jim?" And with a resigned smile, "it would do you a world of good. I've been hoping you'd get around to getting out from under for a few days. I want to get this house cleaned up. Besides we need some fresh meat that'll only cost us $1.95 a pound."

So, having sold the little woman on the idea of the great deer hunt, I packed my rather meagre equipment in three duffle bags, two suitcases, a packing box and a small steamer trunk. Of course the larger and heavier things, such as guns, fishing rods and tackle, iron grilles for the fireplace, army cot, tent, ridge poles, water-proof deer bags and other sundry impedimentae could be stowed at random throughout the half-ton pick-up truck we would use on the safari.

Departure time was set for 10 a.m. Saturday. We weren't going to go clear into Oregon for our deer. No siree! Didn't we know Manuel? Manuel had it arranged. We were only going within 40 miles of the line. That is, the Siskiyou-Modoc county Oregon line. A mere five hundred miles.

Somehow or other we weren't able to quite make our destination that first day. As the shades of night were falling we camped along a bubbling stream just out of Fall River Mills. I might add that the bubbling was not caused by wild mountain trout leaping at our lures. They were conspicuously absent. "Too well fed by natural food," said Sam, knowingly. He must have been right. We saw dozens of beauties down there in the swirling waters. But they may have had advance warning of our coming . . . and of the malicious schemes we had intended to perpetrate on them should they so much as smell our bait. And yet, to give credit where credit is due Jim did hook a dandy 20-inch Rainbow the next day. We lolled about the place all day long, and that evening, after only 10 hours of trickery of man against nature, Jim came staggering into camp with the day's bounty. And in truth it was a dandy. One nice Rainbow.

Next day we headed north again for our rendezvous with the redoubtable Manuel. The man who in 40 years of next-to-nature living never let a hunting pal down. On the morning of the sixteenth, I'd guess it to be all of 4 a.m., the cannonading began. The battle of Modoc was on again. If Captain Jack had been alive and roaming his old stamping grounds again he'd have sent up smoke signals for the tribe's warriors to gather for the campaign. The U. S. Cavalry couldn't have laid down a more scientific barrage. Jim and I huddled in a lava cave, our guns resting over the parapet. Our red hats were all that showed. Even so, I was fearful that some of the hairy-chested warriors from "civilization" might have mistaken us for red-headed deer. What all the shooting was about we still aren't quite sure. Does by the hundreds scampered about. Some came down to us and sniffed our rifle barrels. No doubt they were wondering what post-war powder smelled like. This procedure continued for three days. Of course on the second and third days we only hunted about 14 hours per day. That was on account of the mountain dew that fell about us. By five in the morning we were drenched to the skin, but the day was just beginning, so like true sons of the hunt we laughed it off and held our ground. Unfortunately the deer did likewise. If it's possible for a deer to make a noise like a donkey, I'm sure they did. We almost got one though, about ten a.m. Friday. Jim and I drew a sharp beed on a dandy. Must have weighed all of 200. We intended to let go together so as to be sure one of us got him. But just then Sam plopped in our cave with a war-whoop . . . "Don't fire! Don't fire! That's a big doe . . . those horns are ears . . . extra big ears." Shamed to the quick, we dropped our elephant guns and explained that we were just sort of sighting on the beastie in case we should see a buck nearby.

After a drying-out period of several hours, and hundreds of flap-jacks later, we packed and headed for home. Mileage: 1213 miles. Fun? Yes! Fish? Three of 'em. Deer. One for six men. But the change and relaxation was worth it. We wouldn't have missed it.

We believe for the good of our Country that communism, and all other ism's that tend to cause dis-unity, or advocate the overthrow of our Government should be outlawed. An all too frequent attitude of well meaning American liberals, as well of course as of the outright Reds, is to deplore efforts to control Kremlin agents in this country by law.

The fact is, as should have been plain long ago, that the bolsheviks have always been essentially an underground party. They work in the dark, they sneak, they crawl, they maneuver unseen. Permitting the Communists to pose as an "American" political party, fools the easily fooled liberals and even the less gullible. It enables them to get the support of the ineffable morons who declare they are "only seeking democracy," and demand for them the privilege of free speech they accord no one in their native land.

The Communist Party should be outlawed.

FORREST A. REESE,
Sincerely,
Americanism Chairman.

Mr. Hammon spoke of the training given the squad in their curricular activities, as well as their athletic training. At Santa Clara, he said that scholastic standing must be maintained regardless of the success of the team. He pointed out that a very large percentage of the boys had become outstanding successes in their fields after graduation.

Mighty glad to see that letter to the Congress, sent by Campbell Legionaires this week. We all ought to be sitting down and writing our government how we want the country run—but it's like the weather—nobody does much but talk about it. So thanks, Legion, let's have some more grass-roots expression of opinion.
